COLONEL CREEBS.

The Outlook in Jackson County.

Carbondale, Ill., Oct. 11th, 1870.

Col. John M. Crebs in Jackson County.

Col. Crebs has just left our county to fill his appointments in Williamson county.
The Col. has made fine telling speeches in Jackson, to large and enthusiastic audiences. Many Democrats who have acted with the Republican party during and since the war, have returned to their first love and pledged anew their fidelity to the Democracy of the nation. Radicals by scores and hundreds have forsaken the party and will cast their votes for Col. Crebs and the entire Democratic ticket. Dan Munn (chauvin) was literally dissected and his skeleton in all its deformities was placed upon exhibition, in our city last night, for the space of two hours.

The statements made through the New Era—Baron Munchausen's penny whistle, were proven to be false. Dan and his colleagues stand condemned before our intelligent people as fakers or idiots—the people know not which.

Old Jackson ever true to the Democracy will roll up a majority of 500 for Col Crebs and the entire Democratic ticket.

ERGO.

DAN MUNN A CORRUPTIONIST.

The corruptionists are destroying the Radical party. Unless the party is speedily purged of its corrupt leaders and officials it must go to pieces.
Dan Munn is a corruptionist, and it would afford me solid satisfaction to hear of his defeat.

This language was employed by Governor Palmer, in presence of a prominent citizen of Cairo, and reflects the sentiments of hundreds of intelligent Radicals who are not bound to their party by the seductions of plunder.

Dan Munn is a corruptionist, and it
hear of his defeat. Governor Palmer manifestly knew his man. Supervising the work of the Legislature, and advised of much that was going on behind the curtain, he no doubt speaks intelligently when he declares Dan Munn is a corrupt man.

Put it on record, then, that the Governor of Illinois, earnestly desiring the purification of the Radical party—the casting out of corrupt and unworthy men, would be gratified to learn of the defeat of D. W. Munn.

Governor Palmer is an honest and earnest Radical, and, grateful to his party for the honor it has conferred upon him, he desires to purify and perpetuate it by keeping dishonest and corrupt men out of office. Hence his desire for the defeat of D. W. Munn, with whose political history he is thoroughly acquainted.

Keep it before the people then that Governor Palmer, believing Dan Munn to be a corruptionist, would have him defeated.

LOGAN'S RECORD.

"Damned Spots" that went "Out."

A recent number of the Chicago Times dealing with General Logan's political record, employs the following very pointed language.

None who know Logan could have been surprised when, in 1861, he quarreled with Mr. Douglas, and cast his suffrages and offers of service at the feet of the head traitor.
In defeat, he could hope for nothing more from them in the way of political advancement.

He believed that Mr. Douglas and the Democratic party, of which, in the campaign just ended, he was the standard-bearer were
in defeat, he could hope for nothing more
from them in the way of political advancement.

General Spinner, holding such a position, is compelled to resign his position, and, while his position is not individually responsible, and deserves no credit for these acts.
